Organisation of Great Freedom Run in Delhi

2262. SHRI B. SATYANARAYAN REDDY: Will the Minister of HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT be pleased to state:

(a) whether the "Great Freedom Run" organised on 27th February, 1988 in Delhi was marred by a free-for-all by a group of runners at the National Stadium and the furniture and the tennis room was badly damaged;

(b) whether it is a fact that violence took place due to inadequate arrangements made by the race organisers and similar demonstrations occurred at various points on route of the race and that many children were missing;

(c) if so, what are the details thereof; and

(d) what was the total expenditure incurred for organising the said Freedom Run?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE DEPARTMENTS OF YOUTH AFFAIRS AND SPORTS AND WOMEN AND CHILD DEVELOPMENT IN THE MINISTRY OF HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT (SHRIMATI MARGARET ALVA): (a) to (c) The "Great Freedom Run" was organised by the Pune International Marathon Trust. The organisers have reported that the Great Freedom Run was successful as more than one lakh persons participated. The arrangements for the Freedom Run were adequate. Some participants in the 10 kilometres event who did not follow a-route instructions/directions about the finishing point reached the National Stadium instead of Vijay Chowk. Some of them demanded cash awards and prizes and this led to some untowards incident in which property worth approximately Rs. 10,000/- was damaged at the National Stadium. Some children were reported missing or could not reach home as they did not have money. They were sent to their homes by the police or stadium authorities.

(d) No Government assistance was provided for the Great Freedom Run. Details of expenditure are not available with the Government.

New Trains in Maharashtra
